Minutes:

Minutes moved as correct Charlie Barton sec. Irene Holloway.

Correspondence accepted Bob Holloway sec. Geoff Kell.

Treasurers Report Tabled Charlie Barton moved as correct sec. John Robinson carried.

Community Paddock Report: Still no information from Council re ownership of Land near tavern.

Bill's sheep continue to do a good job of keeping paddock clean.

General Business:

Michael Hawkins presented his feasibility study re Cafe Wee Jasper.

There were a lot of changes since the report was first written, e.g. the need for a Community Nurse, so some of the document is irrelevant.

Paul DeSzell and one other Council employee inspected the Hall with Michael, in their opinion there was not a lot to be done to bring Hall to a standard business could commence.

Floor coverings in kitchen area, water availability, thermometers in refrigeration, Rollers on fridge and freezer were a few mentioned.

Questions on Staffing, PAYG, Insurance etc. were discussed there were no definitive answers so more work needs to be undertaken.

Charlie Barton congratulated the preparation of the feasibility study. Kitchen upgrade good for community.

Motion: Charlie Barton moved to keep gathering information , proceed in principal with grant application for upgrade. sec. John Robinson carried.

Other Business:

John Parker moved Hall be treated for spider/white ants he would contact Greg Bush and get a quote. Sec. Bob Holloway.

Geoff Kell, Mirrors stolen from Tumut Road again.
